HEADLAND GOLF CLUB PROSPECTIVE MEMBER'S INFORMATION PACK

Part 2 - The Membership Joining Process

2. FULL OR INTERMEDIATE MEMBERSHIP

- 1. At present, all new members at Headland Golf Club enter via Restricted Membership. The Restricted Membership category is a path into Full Membership (or Intermediate Membership if under the age of 30), and has the following limitations:
 - Restricted members are ineligible to book for Saturday competitions until the day before the competition.
 - Ineligible to win honour board events.
 - Ineligible to vote or stand for Board positions.
- Restricted Members are upgraded to Full Membership or Intermediate Membership based on seniority when a position becomes available. The club currently has a cap of 1000 Full Members with uninhibited playing rights.

The following is a rundown of the Membership Joining Process:

- 1. Complete the nomination form for the applicable membership category. Forms are available on the Club website www.headlandgolfclub.com.au or from Club Reception.
- 2. Bring the completed form to Club Reception during Office Hours and pay the applicable Entrance Fee, Subscription Fee and Affiliation Fee (NB the Entrance Fee can be paid off over two membership years please ask at Reception for details).
- 3. Once paid you will be issued with a Membership Card and New Members Information Pack. You are able to begin playing golf straight away. Social golf is free of charge for members and there is a $12 fee for competition golf.
- 4. Your application will be tabled at the next meeting of the Board of Directors. Generally speaking this is a formality.
- 5. You will be invited to the next New Members Information Evening. Whilst not compulsory, it is important that you attend as it will give you a rundown of how the Club operates, and allows you to meet and ask questions of the Board and meet other new members (all with some free drinks and finger food).
